

Patty's Plants Seed Potatoes for 2010

Certified Organic, Colorado Rose Seed Potato

Exciting new variety with red skin, white flesh and high yields. This variety produces an abundance of high-quality spuds and retains its skin color well in storage. (90 days) $6.99 per lb

Certified Organic, Yellow Finn Seed Potato

Classic European deep yellow-fleshed gourmet potato with a unique sweet buttery flavor, moist and firm flesh. Spreading root system, give it some room. Stores better than red potatoes or Yukon Gold. (80+ days) $6.99 per lb

Certified Organic, Yukon Gold Seed Potato

A best seller. European-style light yellow-fleshed potato renowned for outstanding flavor. Perfect baked, boiled, mashed or fried. Excellent keeper. (65+ days) $6.99 per lb

Certified Organic, All Blue Seed Potato

Oblong, deep-blue, almost purple skin. Consistently blue flesh throughout, moist and firm. Retains color when cooked. Large yields of medium-sized tubers. Excellent, rich flavor. Attractive, eye-catching potato. (80+ days) $ 6.99 per lb

Certified Organic, German Butterball Seed Potato

With a soft buttery taste, the German Butterball brings delight to any plate. Many people find it hard to go back to other varieties after they've tasted the German Butterball. Great for roasting, pan cooking, or mashed potatoes. Skin is netted like a russet. (100-120 days) $6.99 per lb

Certified Organic, LaRatte Seed Potato

Considered the best tasting fingerling by many. With it's unique nutty flavor and smooth, buttery texture, it's a favorite of French chefs and now a delightful new discovery for Americans. Great roasted or boiled. Was even featured in the New York Times. (100-120 days) $7.99 per lb

Certified Organic, German Butterball Seed Potato Rare heirloom potato and most popular fingerling. Easy to grow; strong yields. Yellow inside & out, savory flavor and firm texture. (90+ days) $7.99 per lb